
1.1 重要的书

'How to make presentation'

惯用例子：

before: horrible public speaker, stammer, mind go blank automatically

Teacher recommend

Helpful, telling you how to collect information, write a good speech , practice in front on the mirror

Learn a lot. Practice with these methods.

Now: excellent public speaker

1.2 电视的影响

Personally, I think television has numerous positive effects on today's society.

First, television provides us a rapid access to large amounts of knowledge and information. Through various news programs and documentaries, television keeps us educated and updated as to the current events around the world.

Besides, television offers us great entertainment. For example, after a long day of hard work or study, I really enjoy sitting on a big couch, having a nice drink and watching my favorite tv shows, which is totally relaxing.

Television affords us a rapid convenient access to a great amount of knowledge and information. You know, in the past, people had difficulty knowing what's happening around the world. But now, just by sitting in front of a television, you can not only hear about but actually see what's going on in the other hemisphere of the earth.

Besides, television also provides great entertainment. For example, after a long day of hard work or study, I really enjoy lying on a big couch, having a nice drink and watching my favorite TV series, which is totally relaxing.

2.1 重要的地方

Park

1 beautiful, stress reducer

details: trees, flowers, birds and a large lake with crystal clear water

the minute you step into the park, you forget all the worries and pressure in your life

2 English corner each Friday night try to attend it every week. Practice english and make friends.

people exchange ideas on various world issues. Everyone is free to air their opinion.

2.2 多学科/单一学科

Take various courses to get broad education in college

1\ a lot of work involves interdisciplinary studies only excel in one area, won't be competitive enough in the future job market

2\ more fun

less likely for us to get bored studying. Exposed to a variety of fields, perspectives and theories

3\find true love

For me, I prefer to take various courses. Because, firstly, a lot of work today requires interdisciplinary knowledge basis. If one only excels in one subject, he/she

Focus on single subject:

1\specialized study increases efficiency student's time and attention span are limited. Impossible to handle multiply subjects simultaneously exams: 9 subjects in high school, struggle. Major in one in college, less stress, more efficient

2\makes us more professional sufficient professional qualities. Comparative advantage. Fierce competition in today's job market

3.1 优秀家长的品质

Need to be a good role model for kids, because they are the people who have the greatest influence on kids

exm. My father always tells me to be strong and self-disciplined and he himself sets great example for me. Five years ago, he quitted smoking, which was really challenging for a heavy smoker who used to get through a pack of cigarettes a day. A lot of his friends returned to their old habit shortly after they promised to quit, but my father has kept his word and has never touched a single cigarette since. This really makes me proud and it reminds me to persevere no matter what happens

Steering their children towards their real interests

Provide opportunities for their children to explore their interests

3.2 独立作业/小组作业

Independent work:

1\more efficient

focus on my assignment and complete it faster without interference from others as well as all those extra meetings needed to build up an agreement among group members.

used to be in a group, took as many as 3 meetings to simply reach a consensus on our topic. Drove me crazy

2\more challenging

complete the assignment totally independently from start to finish, performing different tasks such as selecting the subject, collecting information, doing the interview and finally finishing the article.

improve comprehensive abilities and is beneficial to our all-round development

Group working:

1\ideas can be brought to life faster when collaborating with others saying: two heads are better than one everyone different view. Easily get a lot of creative and original ideas when brainstorming together

2\improves the efficiency

exp: once in a group, divide tasks according to each one's strength. Some collected the information, some sorted the data and I did the statistic test. It turned out that we did a very good job and we even got an extra point because we completed the work before the due time.

4.1 最想念家里的什么？

Eating with families.

1\my mum is fantastic cook. She says the happiest thing in the world is to cook for her family.

shuts herself in the kitchen and makes various yummy foods, like fish, vegetables, soups and salads.

it Is magical how her dishes can always satisfy my picky taste buds 2\the dining-table is a welcoming place, and provides time for exchanging ideas and getting help nice food also helps me to calm down and cheer up.

4.2 传统课程/网络课程

Traditional classroom:

1\communication and interaction communicate with teacher face to face to ask questions or have interesting discussion with classmates, which gives me inspiration and motivation

2\better manage and concentrate on my study with a set of time schedule in traditional classroom too many distractions on the internet: video games, social network, online shopping sites relies heavily on self-discipline to study online

Online study:4

1\one of the main advantages of online education is that classes are available anywhere there is a computer and an Internet connection.

online students can study right from their homes, saving time, gas, and vehicle wear and tear. Particularly, it eliminates having to travel in inclement weather.

2\allow students to work at any time of the day or night.

This advantage removes the time constraint of attending a traditional class lecture at a specific time.

students can also review class materials at length without feeling rushed.

some online programs even allow students to finish coursework entirely at their own pace.

3\more and more schools are offering online programs now, increasing the available options and allowing students to search until they find one that meets their needs.

I can take courses offered by world-famous universities such as Harvard University, Yale University, without even stepping out of my room.

5.1 小时候喜欢的地方

Park

1\beautiful

trees, flowers, cute birds, a large lake with crystal clean water also I could play all kinds of games there with my friends, such as hide and seek or ride on the roller coaster, enjoy the swings and fly kites. We had so much fun there

2\there was a little snack bar which sold the most delicious ice-cream and popsicles on earth.

every time I was in the park, I would ask my mum to buy me a lot of the yummy ice-cream. It was simply the sweetest memory of my childhood

5.2 学习数学/科学比学习艺术/文学更重要

Math/science is more important:

1\practical and useful

they reveal the nature of our universe and modernized our society just look around, all the buildings, bridges, transportation and technical devices we are using, they all based on math and science. Without scientific knowledge, we can not adapt to today's world.

2\more objective and reasonable, teaches us to think in a more logical and systematical way, which greatly encourages invention and creation on the contrary, art and literature, they are just too unpredictable and emotional, which is not my style.

Of equal importance. Because they teach people totally different things.

1\ learning art and literature helps us to be more imaginative and creative and more sensitive to the beauty and evil in the world so that we can appreciate great literature and art works better and express our thoughts in a much clearer way

2\math the science can help us to be more objective and reasonable, because they reveal the nature of the universe, help us to think more logically or systematically and enable us to accumulate hands-on skills.

Both subjects are indispensable for a person's all-round development.

6.2 单一职业/多种职业

Stick to one career

1\ our time and energy are limited, we aren't able to be good at anything if we can't focus exp: my uncle, changed many jobs. So-called jack of all trades and master of none. Right now he earns very little and can hardly support his family.

2\ staying in one job assures security.

Changing employer often means a period of instability, where one may have to think about moving house, or temporarily losing a steady source of income.

since you are fresher to the job, you have to learn all the working skills or patterns from the scratch.

3\ there is more possibility for promotion if you endure in the same company in the same job bosses all like employers who are experienced as well as loyal to the company.

exp: my uncle has been working in a single company for more than 15 years as an ordinary staff. His bosses thought he was persistent and reliable and promoted him to manager last year.

continuing a job in the same company for a long time is a process of career growth.

Try different careers

1\trying various occupations helps you to find your true love you have to experience different kinds of job before you finally find what you want to do internally.

exp: my uncle used to be a successful businessman. But he didn't like his job at all. So he shut down his company and changed to be a reporter. Now he finds that journalism is his true love and he enjoys his new job pretty much.

2\changing jobs frequently makes your life more colorful.

you will never stuck in rut

from my personal experience, I got bored when I spent too long in a job.

Following this, the quality of my work would suffer.

by continuous changes, you can have new pictures come to the screen and you get excited and motivated all the time

3\bosses all like those employees who have the ability to wear multiple hats

7.1 推荐一座城市

Beijing.

It is the capital of china, as well as being the country's center of politics, economy and culture.

There are so many places of historical interest, such as the forbidden city, the summer palace, the great wall and tiananmen square. By visiting these places, my foreign friends would become familiar with china's long and splendid hisotry

There are so many places for relaxation around the city, like houhai and the sanlitun area, so my friends could grab some beer, eat some yummy local foods and listen to some nice music after a long day's visit to the great wall

8.1 家人或朋友帮助你的经历

套例子：演讲

I'd like to talk about how my friend jessica helped me to prepare for my first presentation.

Last year, I was chosen as a representative of our school to give a speech. I was so afraid of it. I knew I always stammered and my mind just went blank every time I stood in front of a large crowd. Thank god, jessica offered to help me. First, she helped me to collect a lot of information from the internet and she guided me on how to write a good draft. Then she videoed my performance and told me how to adjust my voice and facial expressions. All of this effort paid off eventually and I gave a very good speech. I am so grateful to her.

8.2 喜不喜欢冒险

Agree

1\trying new things provides you with an opportunity to explore and unleash your potential.

exp: last year, my teacher asked me to take part in a presentation contest.

Before that, I had never done any public speaking. I thought my mind would go blank when standing in front of a large crowd. However, encouraged by my teacher, I took the challenge even though I was scared to death. And guess what! It turned out that I am actually a pretty good public speaker. So it's really rewarding to try new things.

2\ taking adventures now and then makes your life more colorful.

as is often said, life is short and precious. We should try our best to live it to the fullest. If we always avoid risk and stick to the old path, we will lose many great opportunities and excitements. Why not embrace change and try new things? Whatever the experiences are, they will all be impressed on your memory.

9.2 家庭 vs 朋友对青少年的影响

Family:

1\we have been with our family members since we were born.

they not only look after us, but also teach us the important principles of doing things or getting along in society.

in a sense, our personalities are modeled after our parents

2\parents are the most trustworthy people we can turn to whenever we encounter problems or challenges they are always there for us, giving us unconditional love and reliable solutions;

exp: after failing several job interviews, I felt very frustrated. It's my parents who encouraged me to be confident and try even harder towards my goal. Without their help, I could not get through that hard time.

parents have more life experience and wisdom, and can provide us with very helpful suggestions

10.2 学习第二语言

1\mastering at least one additional language empowers us to access a lot of information that would otherwise be off limits.

exp: over 80% of the internet information is carried by english and more than 70% of the world's scientific publications are published in english. As chinese students, if we don' t study english, we will miss all these resources.

2\a second language expands future career potentials language skills can be a significant competitive advantage that sets you apart from you monolingual peers. And study has shown that bilingual employees have a better opportunity at finding work and getting paid a higher salary

11.1 一本有趣的书

How to make a presentation

In it, you can find a lot of animated figures and graphs, and the language is quite easy and simple to follow, telling you how to collect information from the internet or the library to write a well-organized speech, how to practice in front of the mirror or video yourself to improve, and even how to gather feedback after doing simulated presentations to friends and family members. There are also a lot of light-hearted stories and jokes to help you become relaxed. You will never feel bored while reading.

11.2 父母管控孩子看的电视节目

1\avoid harmful tv programs

kids are immature. They can't distinguish between right and wrong.

there is simply too much sex, violence, drugs, alcohol or crime in today's tv programs, which may lead kids to the wrong value and even distort their normal understanding of the world.

2\without supervision, kids may sit there watching tv all the time, which will harm their eye-sight and lead to a lot of health problems, like obesity, high blood pressure or diabetes.

parents really need to urge their kids to spend more time doing outdoor activities, instead of being a couch potato

3\ parents can encourage kids to watch those educational programs exp: my parents always accompanied me on watching documentary programs when I was a little child. They have greatly broadened my horizon and imparted me a lot of knowledge about history and science.

12.1 最便捷的交通方式

Subway

1\ save a lot of time by avoiding traffic congestion.

subway has its exclusive underground route system, so you don't have to worry about problems such as being stuck on the busy streets, which you may have with buses or cars. It really save much time especially during rush hours.

2\cheap

exp: used to spend 50 yuan by taxi ,now only 3 yuan

Both cost-effective and convenient

12.2 学乐器

Important

1\teaches us the importance of persistence and patience.

exp: I have been playing violin since I was six. Through the process, I have learned how much efforts and time it takes to achieve even a slight progress.

This is a very significant principle of today's highly competitive world

2\ provides us a perfect way to relax whenever I feel stressed out, I would take up my violin and immerse myself in the music. It helps to drive all my sadness and pressure away and refresh my mind to crack down whatever problems.

13.1 团体活动

Basketball

1\release pressure

Take myself for example. As a student, I have to take classes for about eight hours everyday, and then bury myself in numerous presentations, group discussions or class assignments. So it's quite busy and tired. However, playing basketball gives me a chance to refresh myself. It always drives my stress away, replenishes my energy as well as helps me keep fit.

2\ I've learned a lot about team spirit from basketball it's a team sport. You really have to collaborate well with your teammates and listen to the coach carefully in order to beat your rivals.

plus, I have made a lot of friends in my team. We really enjoy each other's company on the court

13.2 用网络还是纸质书找资料

Printed material

1\They are more reliable

The information from printed materials has been fact-checked, reviewed and edited multiple times before publishing, so they are more accurate and authoritative. While online information, even if it is more accessible, is sometimes fake or of a dubious source.

2\ I can concentrate more on research with paper books. There are just too many distractions on the internet, such as the social networks, video games or online shopping sites.

plus, reading from the screen for a long time always results in a headache and eye-strain.

Internet:

1\ more convenient and efficient

With merely a smartphone or a laptop, you can search the information anytime and anywhere. The only thing you should to is to tap several key words on the web page, and then all the information, whether news report or academic papers or ebooks, will jump in front of you.

2\the internet provides us a rapid access to much more timely information than published materials.

For example, if you want to know what is happening in London just now, you'll certainly turn to the internet rather than old published books.

14.1 喜欢什么类型的书

Biography

1\see the world in new ways

Reading about somebody from a different era, a different background or with a totally different set of life experience always provides me with new perspectives.

I even feel like I can live several times by reading biographies

2\it's very instructive to know how others handled the crises in their lives and dealt with setbacks and challenges in harsh conditions.

Exp: my favorite biographical work is the one of sudongpo. By reading it, I have learned about how this famous poet in chinese history faced all the up and downs in his life with extraordinary optimism, which also gives me the strength and faith to strive hard in my life, to move on and hold on to my dreams when I was upset.

14.2 最好的学习方式是犯错

1\helps us to gain a better understanding of our own problems and motivates us to keep moving forward.

Exp: last semester, I was chosen to do a presentation on Tang dynasty in class. I thought I was quite familiar with the topic so I didn't prepare for it at all. The result was, I made terrible mistakes about some important historical facts, which were pointed out by my classmates on the spot. It's embarrassing but it reminds me to be humble and make adequate preparations in advance.

2\ once you've made a mistake, it will be so impressive that you would never forget it. In other words, you have mastered it. Take the historical facts I just mentioned. I would never ever forget them

15.1 交朋友的方式

Attending hobby clubs

1\ it's easier to make friends with people who share the identical hobbies with you.

Exp; I basketball club. Friend jessica, a lot of common topics. Also play basketball together

2\ corporative activities, which people in hobby clubs always join in ,greatly enhance the relationship between team members

Like jessica and me, we collaborate with each other at the court and celebrate for the victory or cry for the loss after every match. These all become our common precious memories.

15.2 记住过去并从中学到教训

It's crucial to remember and learn from the past

Saying: those who cannot learn from the history are doomed to repeat it.

People may say the past failures are embarrassing, but I think they really help to push you learn faster.

Exp: do presentation. Go blank. Humiliating. Humble. Work hard.

16.1 想从事的职业

Musician

1\ I really enjoy music.

Music transcends geographical boundaries and can be understood by all human beings on the earth irrespective of race, religion, gender or skin color. It's a kind of universal language. It helps people to express their emotions and think outside the box.

2\ allow me to have a more flexible life schedule.

I would rather die than have to rush to a crammed office in the morning and stay there for a whole day

As musician: create and play music freely and let my imagination fly

Plus, if people love the music I create, it will give me a great sense of achievement

16.2 天降横财

Spend money on practical things

1\pleasure doesn' t last long if I spend money on fancy cars or luxuries, even though they would offer me instant gratification, it would not be sustainable.

What if I squandered all the money away and ended up being poor again? Life would be even more unbearable.

2\if I used it for practical things that would be a totally different story

Exp: take advanced business course or get degrees in my dream university such as harvard or yale or try to set up a company using the rest of the sum

My life would be changed completely by the knowledge and experience that money could bring me.

17.2 手机进教室

No:

1\distract students who are using the phones

self-disciplined

2\also distract students who are not using the phones

phone keep ringing. Alarm suddenly goes off drive me crazy

Yes:

1\ they are an effective study aid

Every time I come across a new word or terminology, I take out my phone to look it up in an on-line dictionary or wikipedia

It helps me to learn faster and in a more comprehensive way

2\helps me to relax

During class breaks, we always listen to our favorite music and watch interesting video clips to unwind.

Plus, we can use cell phones to communicate with our classmates, teacher, family members and friends, sharing photos or voice mail. Cell phones are really fun and convenient.

18.1 十年后的生活

Have a lot of time completely at my own disposal

18.2 学习其他文化很重要

Today's world is highly globalized and closely interconnected.

1\for students

when they are studying abroad, they will be able to be more adaptable and integrate themselves better into the local environment

2\for business people

learning about other cultures helps them to secure more market share and better cater to specific needs

exp: in order to gain a larger market share, KFC in China has paid special attention to Chinese culinary culture, and has added a lot of Chinese food on its menu, like deep-fried bread sticks and porridge, etc. this has helped make it one of the largest fast food chains in china

19.2 网上或通过杂志、购物指南购物 vs 商店购物

Shop online

1\save time

As a busy student, every day I have to deal with endless presentations, group assignments and class assignments, so I really don't have time for shopping in a real store.

But if I buy things on the internet, I only need to click the mouse and then the ordered goods will be delivered right to my door step in a day or two.

And I can do shopping anytime and anywhere

2\save money

goods online are generally much cheaper than in a real store and there is also more variety

Plus, there are always a lot of promotions and coupons online. Double eleven shopping festival. In promotion

20.1 团队成员的品质

A great sense of responsibility

1\responsible members assure the team to move forward successfully as a whole

The essence of group working is collaboration.

The assignment is distributed according to each one's personalities or abilities.

So, for example, if the person assigned to collect important information is always goofing off, maybe the entire project will stall.

Only when every member takes the responsibility for his or her part can the work progress smoothly.

2\Furthermore, people with responsibility can lead the team to achieve better results.

I remember I was once in a course team whose leader was really attentive to the assignment.

He did a lot of preparation work and constantly put forward remarkable suggestions for improvement. Under his leadership, we did a very good job and got the highest score in our class.

20.2 在电视上看新闻 vs 在报纸或网络上读新闻

Watch news

1\get more details about what has occurred

news on tv provides me with sound and visual effects, so I can see the scene and the people involved, and also observe their facial expressions, their words and the background sound.

this gives me a more objective picture of the story, and makes me feel as if I were there at the scene

2\ as a busy student, my schedule is really tight. Watching news can feed om the information in a much faster ways.

I don't need to put aside time to sit and read. I could watch the news while I am doing something else, like running on the treadmill or even washing dishes. It is just more convenient

Read news:

1\ more convenient. Eliminate the limitation of time and place

Don't have to wait until 7 o'clock every night to watch the daily news network show in front of a tv. With merely a smartphone on hand, I can read about what's happening globally anytime and anywhere. As a busy students, it's very important because it allows me to use the fragmented time such as class breaks to keep myself updated to the current events around the world

2\ more informative.

The internet provides all sorts of news websites. And particularly, if I want to learn about a specific part or if I have some doubts or questions, I can simply open up a search engine such as google and tap into some key words, then all the information related to the topic will jump right there on my screen.

21.1 最近的新闻事件

A large-scale public campaign on air pollution in Beijing, which has been pretty severe in recent years.

At government level, a number of environmental policies have been designed, such as the odd-even license plate restrictions and the policies of only permitting the purchasing of cars via a lottery system, in order to reduce the number of cars on the streets and the amount of emissions from cars

As for the general public, we have been encouraged to plant more trees, put aside our private cars and take public transportation more often and be more conscious about energy conservation.

the campaign is really effective in combating smog

21.2 朋友的影响

1\ my parents are pretty busy with their work so I have been living in a boarding school since primary school. Therefore, it is my friends who I spend most of my time with.

we study together, eat together and play together, sharing each others happiness and sadness

2\ my friends and I are of similar age and experience similar problems, so they can offer more practical solutions to my problems.

Exp; last month, I failed in math. It was my friend jessica who lent me her notes and explained everything in detail and helped me catch up with the others.

22.1 从小以来性格发生的一次改变

Used to be very shy and lack confidence, especially in front of a big crowd. But one event back in my high school changed my personality.

I was selected by my english teacher to compete in an english drama competition ...

Push myself to the limit

I persisted in getting up at 5 am each morning to recite my lines and practice for almost two months

Finally, I delivered a wonderful performance.

It was life-changing. I have gained self-confidence and have always believed in myself since then.

22.2 学习实用技能：做饭或个人理财

Agree;

1\the purpose of education is not to cultivate exam-taking machines, but to produce a well-round person.

those practical skills are very useful. For example, if we know how to cook, we can take better care of ourselves and eat properly to stay healthy, especially if we are studying abroad in the future.

2\ taking those classes doesn't necessarily mean that we will perform worse in traditional academic learning. On the contrary, skill like personal finance and basic knowledge of economics will help us get a better picture of how the real world works, which will in turn facilitate rather than hamper our academic learning.

23.1 生活在另一个国家的好处

Learn a foreign language faster.

before that, my english sucked, especially my oral and listening abilities because I was really introverted.

gradually I could feel my progress

by the time I came back, my english had improved by leaps and bounds

23.2 空闲时独处还是社交

Spend my free time alone

1\i am introverted bookish sort of person.

reading, thinking and jogging are my favorite activities, which are all to be done alone

If there are a lot of people around me, it is easy for me to become nervous and easily distracted by their talking and behavior.

Relax and refresh

2\i think these activities, reading, thinking and jogging, are benefit to my all-round development.

Exp: reading can keep me educated and open a new world for me. Thinking allows me to reflect on things that happened recently can try to understand them from different perspectives. While jogging, it helps me to keep fit.

Since my schedule is pretty tight, I really value my free time to do these beneficial things.

24.2 大班还是小

Smaller classes

1\more interaction between teachers and students.

if you have any questions, you can ask the teacher and get explanations immediately

also, it is much easier for us to exchange ideas and make friends with other students

2\learning in a big class may be inefficient.

Terrible experience: in a big class, sit in the back row, can't see what is on the powerpoint presentation, nor can you hear the teacher's voice clearly

The air is stuffy as well

25.1 如何改善课堂表现

1\preview and review

Preview: tell us which parts of the textbook are harder and informs us of the important points we need to pay attention to in class so that we can concentrate better

Review: also indispensable because if you don't review frequently enough, we will soon forget what we have learned

2\ have discussions with classmates provide us with a deeper understanding of the problem and provide us with different perspectives and a lot of inspiration

25.2 为了需求还是消遣去购物

Shop when I have a specific purchase to make

1\ save money

As a student, I don't have money to burn. If I go shopping without any specific purpose, I will rush into impulsive purchases, buying clothes, accessories or other trivial items that I am never going to wear or use. It will be a great source of waste

2\ save time

Every day I am busy dealing with all kinds of schoolwork, endless presentations, group discussions and paper work.

If I just go shopping for pleasure, it is easy for me to hang around on the street, doing nothing for the whole day, and feel exhausted

3\ no fun in shopping spend time traveling, bull out your way through the crowd, hang around on the streets with no purpose

I'd rather read some books or watch movies for pleasure

26.2 随身携带手机

1\useful and convenient to have a smartphone with you since it can function in multiple ways

For example, I live in Beijing, a metropolis, and I always get lost on its complicated roads and streets. But with a smartphone, I can easily fix my position using the online maps and get navigated. I can also check out the public transportation routes and schedule as well as call a taxi using my smartphone

2\allows me to keep in touch with my family, friends or colleagues.

If they have something urgent, they can call me. Or I can just simply share my life with my friends or families. Whatever I eat, whatever interesting things that happen to me. I think it's a good way to enhance our relationship.

3\provide a way to relax

During class breaks or when I am waiting for the bus or the subway, I can always use my phone to listen to my favorite music or watch some interesting video clips. It's really refreshing.

27.2 父母应该帮孩子选择上大学

Should not be involved too much. That means, they can offer their suggestions but it is their children who make the final decision.

1\ by the time kids go to university, they must be mature enough to know what they really want to learn internally and which school suits and attracts them best. So giving them the freedom to choose their own university will give them more motivation to hold on to the study in the future. If parents are too involved, they tend to impose their own opinions on their kids. This will only strain their relationship and may even ruin their kids' future for example, when I was selecting the school I'd like to attend, I read a lot about the teaching quality and environment of the available universities from the internet, which is the information my parents never get.

28.1 学术任务：论文，课堂展示，小组项目

Class presentation:

1\ knowing that they have to make a presentation in front of the whole class always gives students an extra push to complete their assignment better.

For example, whenever I was asked to make a presentation, I would get really attentive and spend at least one week in the library preparing for it carefully, making slides and practicing the speech dozens of times. In this way, I always have a much deeper understanding of assigned issue.

2\ by presenting the assignment in class, students can receive immediate feedback from not only the teacher but also all their peers.

To be specific, the class would have the opportunity to ask the presenter questions regarding to his or her report, which can help the presenter to clarify unclear statement and adopt constructive suggestions for his or her work.

28.2 为了孩子们的健康 ,糖果和垃圾食品的广告应该禁止在电视上播放

Agree

1\these advertisements are misleading because they often exaggerate the good taste and so-called healthiness to attract kids but ignore the negative effects.

For example, some advertisement of candies claim that their products contain vitamins but never mention the amount of sugar they have.

2\ kids all too young to control themselves. If they are constantly exposed to such ads, they tend to eat more junk food. This over-consumption may impose a lot of health hazards on children and lead to a lot of health problems like tooth decay, diabetes, high blood pressure or obesity.

Exp; my younger brother, who is 4 years old, always cries for the candies he saw on the television whenever his mother takes him to the supermarket. And now he obviously has the obesity issue.

29.1 哪种职业最值得从事 : 大学教授、环境科学家、报刊记者

University professor

1\ a professor could cultivate talent for the nation, impart knowledge to students, and lead vanguard research in their field, which is strategically important for the development of the whole country.

2\ at a personal level, being a university professor allows for a young mentality because they can communicate with young people all the time.

Besides, professors have fixed long winter and summer vacations which enable them to travel to different places, have more time for their families, read, think and write. This is simply most satisfying.

29.2 在公共场所学习还是在没人的地方学习

Prefer to study in places where there are no people around 1\ it's simply more efficient.

I think study itself needs a quiet environment to focus, comprehend and memorize.

If I study in public places, I would easily get distracted by the sound or movements of other people.

Study alone, concentrate better on learning and pay 100 percent of attention to my tasks.

2\ there are cases like during my english learning, I'd like to read the new vocabularies or phrases out loud sometime to see whether my pronunciation is correct. Since I'm a introverted person, I don' t want to be embarrassed or simply get disrupted by doing these actions with many people around me.

30.1 好的住处

Location is important, because in a big city, living far away from your work place, school, or public transportation hub means a long commute. This is totally time- and energy- consuming

30.2 父母帮孩子选择职业

1\ by the time kids are about to step into society, they must be mature enough to know what they really want to do internally (be passionate about) and which job suits and attracts them best. So giving them the freedom to choose their own job will give them more motivation to hold on to that career in the future. If parents are too involved, they tend to impose their own value judgment and opinions on their kids. This will only strain their relationship and may even ruin their kids' future.

2\ kids are actually better informed than their parents about what choices they have because they have better internet skills, and may have been discussing the available choices with teachers and peers back in school for a long time. It's true that parents can offer valuable suggestions. But in reality, parents' experience may not be that relevant to today's changing world.

for example, when I was selecting the school I'd like to attend, I read a lot about the working conditions and career potentials of the available jobs from the internet, which is the information my parents never get.

31.1 父母做什么保证孩子健康

1\ to keep healthy physically, they can tell their kids to eat a lot of healthy food like fruit and vegetables and to stay away from junk food like pizza and french fries. Also, they should encourage them to do more outdoor activities instead of getting hooked on tv or the internet.\

2\ to keep healthy psychologically, parents can encourage their kids to read more books, and they can also spend more time communicating with them, listening to their problems and worries and being their friends rather than just an authority

31.2 选择有难度的课程还是得分高的课程

Prefer difficult classes, if they are of interest to me.

1\ the purpose of taking a class to learn something new.

if I only take an easy class in order to get a high score, it is a waste of time and energy

2\ in difficult but useful classes, I am more likely to meet with other talented students who are pursuing a higher level of academic performance. Therefore, I will be motivated and pushed to learn more.

for exp, I met with my best friend jessica in an advanced english class, which is very hard, but we inspired and learned from each other and had a lot of interesting discussions. Since we really enjoyed the class and endeavored together, we actually got good grades at the end of the semester.

32.2 孩子们应该在干家务（如打扫房间后）获得报酬

I think it's a good idea

1\ it will motivate kids to do more household chores.

This not only equips them with basic skills to live independently, but also teaches them the importance and value of labor.

Kids must know that money does not come from nothing. If they want something, they must make efforts to earn it.

2\ with the money, kids have the chance to learn how to manage their own savings.

For example, my parents used to give me some allowance for doing dishes or taking out the garbage when I was small. I could then use the money to buy whatever I wanted, like some nice stickers, comics or candies to share with my friends, and this made me popular and money-savvy from quite a young age

33.2 和四五十年前相比,现在吃健康食物是更容易还是更困难

Easier

1\ with the rapid development of technology and transportation, people have more food choices. A lot of foods can be better served and transported to different areas across the globe, which was unimaginable 50 years ago.

2\ people's life standards and health awareness have been dramatically enhanced. We care more about a healthy and balanced diet now. but 50 years ago, people in china were still struggling to survive. At that time, no one would question if the food was healthy or not when they were on the verge of starvation

34.2 禁止私家车进入大城市的市中心

It is a good idea that the private cars shouldn't be allowed in the center of large cities

1\ it would help to encourage more people to go downtown using public transportation, which would make the city center much more orderly and relieve traffic congestion

2\ it would also help to reduce air pollution

Nowadays, the severity of haze is getting increasingly worse in big cities so if private cars were banned in the city center, car emissions would be greatly reduced and the sky would look cleaner

35.1 上大学前花一年去旅行

1\it's like a break after high school

3 years of high school is not easy. You know, competing for gaokao is very stressful. you have to face even harder time of studying in university and working after graduation.

So taking a year off really allows you to unload all the burden and explore the world, which can greatly increase your insight and broaden your horizon.

2\it trains you and equips you with the basic skills of independently living or social communication, which is a good preparation for your future college life. For example, you can learn about how to take care of yourself or make friends with various people during the trip.

35.2 大学的学术声誉

University's academic reputation is the most important thing a student should consider in deciding which university to attend.

Agree:

1\ hire more teacher

2\ provide more classes

Disagree:

I don't really think that a university's academic reputation is the deciding factor a student should consider while choosing schools. Someone who believes in it must have assumed that academic reputation is the only element for a person's development of success, but they overlook the fact that there are other parts of the university education that helps one succeed, like the social life, the various campus activities and general atmosphere. If a university has a great academic reputation but a hostile atmosphere, some students may become depressed and frustrated, and therefore less motivated to work hard to achieve something in college. That, I guess, would be a waste of their college tuition and time.

36.1 给刚上学的孩子的建议

Read as much as possible

1\reading can help kids to develop good comprehensive skills, especially some thesis on particular subjects.

They will be good for young children to acquire the skill of logical thinking.

2\it will give a child big potential benefits if he has good reading habits.

With every day's knowledge intake, he will own profound knowledge storage when he grows up

Reading has so much good influence on a child's development so I strongly urge young students to read more.

36.2 买做好的吃的还是自己做

Buy fresh food and prepare it myself.

1\home-made food is more healthy.

It has been reported frequently these days that some food manufacturers add harmful additive and preservative into their food product to make it look better and still in good condition. These substance are very detrimental to our health.

If we buy raw material and handle it ourselves, we can avoid this kind of bad things.

2\ I can make food according to my personal preference of taste by buying fresh food and preparing it myself.

For example, I really don't like food that is too oily or salty or spicy, which is very common for processed food. So if I cook by myself, I can control the amount of condiment put into it and enjoy light food.

37.1 开设烹饪课程

Good idea

1\ learn knowledge of nutrition and health

learn how to identify and avoid junk food. How to develop a good eating habit of healthy balanced diet. Keep fit

2\ cooking is a practicable skill that can be useful throughout our life. It is the basis of independent living. It certainly benefits children a lot if they learn to cook at a young age. Especially if students are planning to study abroad in the future, it will be very helpful.

37.2 老师友善，学生学的更好

1\ kind teacher will gain student's love and respect

if students love their teacher, they are more likely to be interested in and focus on the classes that teacher is giving 2\ when students encounter with problems or difficulties, they tend to ask teachers they consider nice to them for help, who always gives them kind encouragement and practical solutions.

However, if students regard one teacher as a strict and bad-tempered person, they will avoid asking them questions.

For example, my math teacher back in high school, is very irritable. Whenever I asked him a question, he would be angry at me and made me feel stupid. So I never asked him for help even if I had trouble with my study. As a result, I did poorly on math.

38.1 推荐一种宠物

Dog like golden retriever

1\ clever

can be trained to fetch shoes or shake hands with people. They can also give response when people call their names

2\ faithful to their master

They will bravely protect your home when someone break into your house

If you have a little baby, your dog will take care of him during short leaves of the grow-ups

Good company and loyal guardian. Makes them the first choice when people consider which kind of pet to have

38.2 小说比非小说更有意思吗

Disagree:

Everyone has his or her preference of books

As for me, I love to read biographic works. I think the description of a real person's real life in biographies is just as interesting and exciting as novels or stories and since they are realistic, they are even more powerful.

I can learn a lot about people's life from a different era, a different background or with a totally different set of experience, which also provides me with new perspective

It is also instructive to know how others handle the crises in their lives.

my favorite biographical work is the one of sudongpo. By reading it, I have learned about how this famous poet in chinese history faced all the up and downs in his life with extraordinary optimism, which also gives me the strength and faith to strive hard in my life

39.1 上大学前先工作一年

A brilliant idea

1\gives you an opportunity to explore the real world and find your true love

As chinese students, you know, before the college, we typically spend most of our life in school, preparing for numerous exams. We don't know much about society and we even don't know what we really want to do in the future.

By taking a year off for work before college, you will certainly gain a lot of experience, and have a better understanding of the society as well as your ideal career in the future. So you can choose your major in university more wisely

2\ also equips you with the knowledge that which abilities or skills are most needed and highlighted in current job market, so you can improve yourself more pertinently in the university.

For example, after a year's working before university, I learned that employers do not simply value your academic performance, they also require you to have other competencies such as communication or social skills

3\ we all know that university tutoring fee keeps increasing

One year's job can help us save some money for college education and this will also lessen our parents' burden

40.1 想要了解的国家和文化

USA

1\ as I am going to spend a couple of years studying in American university, I am eager to learn as much as possible about American society and culture, which will definitely eliminate some of the culture shock I might encounter in the future.

2\ America is most powerful country in today's world and is famous for its pluralistic culture.

I am really interested in how all kind of people, differing in races, gender, religion and skin color, blend into such a nation and what makes the country so powerful

I think there are a lot of things we can learn

40.2 纸质书是否会被取代

No

1\ The first reason and also the most important one I wanna say is that, printed materials like books and newspapers actually are a kind of culture throughout the whole world which represents the wisdom of our ancestors.

when reading a book, I always feel like I was appreciating an artwork

2\I can concentrate better on paper books. There are just too many distractions on the internet, such as the social networks, video games or online shopping sites. So I hardly read books or newspapers on the internet.

plus, reading from the screen for a long time always results in a headache and eye-strain. But with paper books, it's more comfortable

Yes, because the electronic devices have brought us so much convenience in the past few years

1\ easier to carry

For example: before I got this kindle, I had to carry books around if I wanted to read during my trips and they were very heavy. But now, I can just download whatever I am interested in in my kindle and just carry this single device and I can read it anytime and anywhere

2\ electronic versions of reading materials are definitely much cheaper than printed books, so it can help us save a lot of money. And it also facilitates the spread of culture all around the world.

41.1 崇拜的伟人

Sudongpo

1\ he wrote a lot of transcendent poems, both artistic and philosophical.

Many of his poems are still being appreciated and spread from generation to generation now.

2\ I read a biographical book about him and learned that he had went through many ups and downs during his life, for example, he was deposed to the most remote areas several times for being framed. But he faced all these crises and misfortune with extraordinary optimism, which also gives me the strength and faith to strive hard in my life, to move on and hold on to my dreams when I was upset.

41.2 学校应不应该花钱在娱乐设施上

No .Personally speaking, I would like to prioritize funding in academia for two reasons.

First of all, the main purpose of university is to educate students. There is no doubt that students are after better education opportunities, better academic achievement and more decent future career prospects. All this requires the university to spend money on elite professors, advanced libraries and top-notch labs.

Secondly, students can have access to diversity of entertainments off-campus. To be more specific, no one is willing to spend all day on campus even school has everything they needed. sometimes they do need to go downtown hanging out with new friends. Holding a concert on campus seems unnecessary and thankless at this point.

42.2 大城市还是小乡村

Big cities

1\offers us many of the highest-paying jobs, which are unavailable in the countryside.

and only with this decent income can we improve our quality of life, like living in a big house or buying a car or travelling around the world during the holidays.

2\more convenient to live in big cities because it provides better infrastructure and public utilities

For example, the public transportation, buses or subways, they are both efficient and cheap.

Besides, we can enjoy better medical resources when we are ill and we can have more choices of education also.

Countryside:

Firstly, living in the countryside means we can appreciate the healthier environment. Nowadays, people living in city have to suffer the air and water pollution caused by the high speeding development of industry. But in the countryside, the air is fresh and the water is as clear as crystal

Secondly, we can enjoy the slow pace of life in the countryside. In big cities, pedestrians are always walking fast and it seems like they would feel unwilling to stop. But with the easy life style of countryside, they dont have to deal with the high pressure resulted from working and living. So it' ll be much more comfortable to live there.

43.2 全日制学习还是兼职学习

Full-time

1\First of all, I really don't understand how university students can expect to learn anything if they don't attend schools for full-time.

From my personal experience, I think academic study is a very time-consuming work which requires a lot of dedication. For example, I have to take classes for more than eight hours a day, and then do plenty of outside readings and researches or have group working with my classmates if I really want to learn something. I don't think I can even manage time to find a job or do something else

2\if you just attend college for part-time, then you will miss important events and chances to make friends, which will definitely make you feel hard to keep pace with others and even limit your social circle in college.

44.2 小学还应该教孩子写好书法吗

1\ for students, especially Chinese students, learning to have good handwriting is actually the process of learning and appreciating one of the greatest culture in our country, which represents the wisdom and creativity of our ancestors. Only when students write the characteristics by their own hands can they have a better understanding of the beauty of our handwriting culture and cherish and protect it.

2\ it's both distractive and harmful for children to type on the computer. There are many things appealing to kids who are lack of self-discipline such as video games or social networks. Staring at the screen for a long time also hurt their eye-sight and can cause headache.

45.1 大学生最重要的品质：积极性强、勤奋、聪明

Highly motivated

1\ if a student is highly motivated, he or she will have a strong ambition and set a goal for the future, which is the prerequisite for success.

2\ as long as you are motivated, you can be patient and take every effort to achieve your goal

I remember every subject I got a very good grade is the one that I was high motivated and wanted to devote time and energy to it internally. But as for those subjects I was disinterested in, well, I hardly got high grades no matter how hard I had tried because I just simply don't like it.

45.2 音乐和艺术对社会很重要

1\ artists and musicians can make the society more colorful by enriching the variety of culture.

And this culture, I believe is a kind of common language that can transcend the geographical boundaries and be understood by people all around the world regardless of nationality, gender, religion or skin color, which promotes the harmony and beauty of our world

2\ offer members in the society a way of entertainment and relax

For example, when people are tired of their work or study, they can go to a concert to admire music or go to see an art exhibition, which gives them an opportunity to escape from the hustle and bustle of life and calm down and refresh themselves.

46.2 现代人的生活方式比 100 年前更健康

Yes

1\ modern people attach greater importance to their health than 100 years ago.

It's no rare to see people pay great attention to keeping a balance between life and work, for example, many people have develop the habit of regular exercise. I myself go to the gym at least twice a week, which I think helps me to keep fit all the time.

2\ people nowadays have easier access to a healthy lifestyle. Take the diet for example.

with the rapid development of technology and transportation, people have more food choices. A lot of foods can be better preserved and transported to different areas across the globe, which was unimaginable 100 years ago.

47.1 自行车、汽车、火车

Bicycle

1\relax

As a busy student, everyday I am overwhelmed with endless classes, assignment or exams. Riding a bicycle provides me a valuable opportunities to escape and breathe in the fresh air. I can feel the breeze caressing my face and enjoy the beautiful surroundings, which really helps to refresh me and drive the stress away.

2\exercise

I don't have many chances to exercise due to my tight schedule. But riding bicycles, it's not only a mean of transportation, it can also help me to form strong muscles on legs and strengthen the cardio respiratory function at the same time.

47.2 未来的人们读书会更少吗

Yes

1\ The rapid development of the internet and electronic devices such as smartphones have greatly reduced people's demand for books.

People in the future will decreasingly rely on books for information or knowledge. If they want to learn about anything, they can simply type some keywords into the search engine and all the information they need will jump right onto the screen.

2\ it's obvious that the increasingly faster pace of life allows less and less time for employees to immerse themselves in a wide range of books.

The trend has already begun that people are more willing to do some fragmented reading such as the short articles from wechat official account rather than books

48.1 你的学习习惯

I am proud of my distinctive way of learning english

Most of my classmates tend to embrace all kinds of textbooks concerning spoken english in hope of bearing in mind some idioms. But I am not willing to follow their examples. The superiority of my approach lies in the direct communication with foreigners who will tell me which way of expression is more authentic and which becomes outmoded or pejorative

48.2 在大商场还是小店购物

Large grocery stores or department stores

1\more convenient, especially when you are purchasing various types of goods

Large stores allow you to gain whatever you want in just one single location, for example, I often go to the wanda department store, where I can buy food or snacks on the first floor and then shirts or pants on the second. I can even have a nice meal or watch a movie on the third floor.

2\ the prices of the goods in big department stores tend to be cheaper than small stores because they are sold in bulk. And they also frequently offer discounts or promotions. So it's both time- and money-saving to shop in large stores

49.1 防止迟到的建议

1\set an alarm as possibly as he can

Once he has an important schedule, an alarm gives him a reminder on time not to be late what's more, he can set the voice of alarm loud so that he will not forget

2\ ask somebody else to do things together.

As we all know, doing things together with others rather than alone is kind of like intangible force

49.2 固定座位还是自由选择座位

Assigned seat

1\it helps to maintain the classroom discipline

Just imagine that if you allow students to choose their seats freely, maybe the naughtiest boys will be happy to sit together and keep talking or even play tricks in classes, which definitely causes chaos and distracts other students

2\eliminate potential conflicts

If students choose their own seats, chances are that some specific seats like the ones in the front rows which have the greatest sights of the blackboard may be preferred by many students. So it's hard to decide who should take the seats, But if it's the teacher who has the say, he or she can arrange the seats according to each students' height or vision or anything like that. So it's more fair.

50.1 政治事件

Speaking of a social or political event that is celebrated in my country is an educational reform back in 1987. The reason why it is of great significance is that it truly opens a new door for lots of talents in all walks of life and they had the opportunity to acquire self-achievement since then. For instance, before 1987, all people in China were encouraged to learn Russian rather than English because at that time China maintained a closer tie with Soviet Union and the government wanted to put this relationship to the greatest extent. In this case, people who are proficient in English language didn't have even the slightest chance to play their part. However, after 1987's educational reform, the leaders put much emphasis on English because they wanted to establish a connection with those more advanced western countries. Under this circumstance, the English professionals had the chance to bring their advantage into full play and changed their fate ever since. In short, the 1987's reform in education is the very big event that my country usually celebrates.

50.2 一大群还是一小群朋友

This is a quite complicated question. It really depends on the very motive behind your making friends. If you want to improve yourself, it is much better to get in touch with a wide range of friends and acquaintances because by having access to a wider and more diverse social network, you could make progress in various aspects, like you may be capable of meeting people who are older than you and they could offer you the wisdom of their life experience. Nevertheless, if you would love to vent your emotions, a small and closer friend is always a better choice. When being in front of your close buddies, you just can be yourself and don't have to care too much about what you say and do. Everything that you express and convey wouldn't hurt any of your practical interest. It's just a way of relief and relaxation. Therefore, to be with which sort of friends is up to your true need.

51.1 对面试的建议

If one of my friends is going to have an essential job interview and wants some suggestions, I would say two things to him. First, dress properly and second, be yourself. Since this is a formal occasion, it is better to wear professional clothes, like wearing a suit or a tie. This way, he could leave a good impression on the interviewer and share a greater chance of successful employment. Speaking of being yourself, it just means take the interview as a casual talk and communicate your ideas about your own expertise. Sometimes pretending you know something that you actually don't know can hurt you in some way. So if you want the job, just be honest and be yourself. And these are the two suggestions I may give to my friend.

51.2 18 岁的投票权

No

Although 18-year-olds are defined as adults legally, the fact is that most of them are still in high schools or colleges, which means they do not have much life experience and social or political knowledge so they are not matured enough to judge what's true or false.

During a campaign, many candidates may make a lot of propaganda videos to create a trustworthy and reliable public image. However, in these materials, it may have some made-up information which is used to mislead and attract potential voters, who know nothing of what the true story is. If this trick could happen to adults, not to mention those eighteen-year-old youth. Therefore, it is unwise to allow eighteen-year-olds to vote and a better approach would be to let them vote when they get older and more mature, like 24-year-old or something.

52.1 宜居的房子

speaking of one quality that makes a house or an apartment a good place to live, it must have plenty of windows. First, if a house has many windows, it could offer the people who live in it better scenery to appreciate, whether it's a glorious city view or spectacular natural scenery. With this, while feeling quite tired after work, they could take a look at outside world and refresh their mind. Second, plenty of windows would make the interior environment bright, which is very essential to people's mood and health. When people are in a dark surrounding, they tend to be upset, impatient and depressed. On the contrary, brightness could bring them a better mood and in a long run would do good to their physical health as well. Therefore, having plenty of windows is a characteristic in a house or apartment that I value.

52.2 和朋友一起去听演唱会或看电影更有意思

Yes.

1\ allows you to have interesting interaction or communication with others, which helps to make the experience more pleasant.

For example, I really enjoy it that after watching a movie with my friends, we share our opinions or comments on the plot or actors and recollect the funniest part of the film, laughing together.

2\ some friends can even provide you the necessary background knowledge concerning the music or film we are about to appreciate.

For example, last month, I attended a concert of classic music, which I was quite unfamiliar with. Thanks to my friend Jessica who came with me, she explained the history and value of these music to me so I could have a better understanding and enjoy them better.

53.2 有了额外的钱是花还是存

Spend it right away

1\ I think the very essence and purpose of earning money is to spend it on things that can bring you happiness and pleasure. Live is so short and precious that we should live it to the fullest. Why not do whatever your heart lead you to do if you have some extra money? For me, for instance, I have so many destinations I have long be dreaming to travel such as Paris that I definitely go there without hesitation if I was given extra money.

2\ due to the persistent inflation, the currency has always been depreciating, which means the purchasing power of a certain amount of money will decline in the future.

For example, books are sold for only several yuan or even cents decades ago but now maybe dozens of yuan. Considering this, it's much wiser to spend the extra money right away than leave it until the future.

54.2 童年是人生最宝贵的时光吗

Yes

1\ childhood is probably the most care-free phase throughout one's life

You are taken good care of by your parent. you don't have to worry about how to make a living or something because you are not the breadwinner. You can play with toys or with friends everyday, free of any stress or anxiety.

2\ you can enjoy the purist and most sincere friendship with your little buddies who perhaps live just next door to you.

There is no competition, no comparison, no peer pressure and no utilitarian purpose among little kids.

Childhood really seems like a peaceful and joyful time where you are not bothered by the trivial or mundane things that keep bugging adolescents and adults

年轻人有必要学习生活技能吗

Well, actually, I don't think it's necessary for young people to learn skills like cooking, sewing and caring for others.

Because, first, you know, young people today are facing too much pressure from work or study and they typically have a very tight time schedule. Take myself for example, I am a busy student, and I have to take classes for over 8 hours everyday and then deal with endless academic assignment. So I simply don't have any other spare time to learn these skills, which all need big efforts to master.

Beside, the accelerating development of the internet and electronic devices nowadays is enabling new levels of convenience and flexibility, by putting almost the whole world at our fingertip. So young people don't have to master all these skills in order to live independently. For example, whenever you're hungry, you can use your smartphone to order take-out food, which is very convenient and time-saving.

通过第一印象还是长期观察了解人

Well, personally, I think it's more advisable to get to know a person by long time observation. As the saying goes, time tries all, and I think this is also true with regard of getting to know someone. One might not be able to learn the real characteristic of a person by the first sight under cases like, if he was a little shy, he might not behave in the way he normally do. Or if a person probably had a bad day, he or she would be kind of grumpy on the day, and you have no reason to conclude that he or she is irritable. So first observation is not reliable.

But in a long run, you can have a better understanding of one's temper and personality because you can see how he or she react to different circumstances.

要开除作弊的学生吗

I think it depends. If the student caught cheating in the exam was doing it for the first time, I think the university should give him or her a second chance, because there might be some excusable reasons behind this inappropriate behavior. If expelled, the student may end up hanging on the street with wrong people, which would be a big pity. However, if the student were caught cheating many times, the school should take actions immediately, because he or she is committing a wrongdoing intentionally. If he or she received no penalty, no student would be honest in the exam.

小孩应该看新闻吗

I don't think it's a good idea to let children listen to or hear news at an early age.

Because we all know that current news always reveals much the complexity and negativity of the society.

I believe little kids should not get access to these things too early because it would cause them to feel distressed about things they could not take control of. What's worse, it may also run the risks of leading kids to the wrong value and even distorting their normal understanding of the world. So it's better mto let children connect with the larger society afterwards, like during their adolescence.
